We were asked to draw a map focusing on the issue of land privatisation of land and services (even through temporary, but seizure. This begged the question: Who is seizing what? The private realm, but more open and accessible than the tobacco factory remains private, but now with 24-hour public access which accompanies these spaces. The map is also illustrating not only physical change but the sense of access and ownership that accompanies these spaces.

Land Seizure

Street Carnival

Urban Explorers

Urban Explorers

LAND SEIZURE | STREET CARNIVAL | URBAN EXPLORERS

Land Seizure map by Max Devereux and David Littlefield, Department of Architecture and the Built Environment, University College London; Street Carnival map by Rachel Sara, Department of Architecture and the Built Environment, University of Westminster; Urban Explorers map by Max Devereux (mdevreux@ucl.ac.uk) and Rachel Sara (RachelSaraDEd@ucl.ac.uk)