

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

There are many people to whom I am deeply indebted to for their help and support in researching and writing this thesis. Firstly, I would like to dedicate this thesis to the late Professor Albert H. Kritzer, co-founder of the Pace Institute of International Commercial Law. It was Al, my good friend and mentor who inspired me to undertake the PhD in the area of the CISG. I am extremely grateful to my supervisory team Professor Nicholas Ryder for all his support and encouragement over the past three years. I would also like to thank my second supervisor Professor Adrian Chandler for all of his insightful comments and feedback. I am indebted to Evadne Grant for taking the time to meticulously proofread the entire thesis. Thank you to Onita and Zainab for all your help with referencing. I would like to thank my husband Patrick for being patient and supportive throughout this entire process. Finally, I would like to thank my Aunt Vidya and very good friends Eleanor, Shilan, Laura, Annand and Bharat for their advice and cheering me on to the finish line!
