

Being Human in the Digital Age

16 March 2011

University of Warwick

Wolfson Research Exchange rooms 2&3 (Warwick Library)

Programme

9.30 Registration and Refreshments

9.45 Introductory Remarks: Dr Claudia Stein
(organiser IAS-network; Being Human:
Medicine and the Human Sciences)

Session 1:

10.00 – 11.00

Chair: Luke Mason (Philter Phactory)

10.00 - 10.30 Professor Jeremy Wyatt (International Institute of Digital Healthcare, Warwick)

Ethical Aspects of Digital Technologies to Support Future Healthcare

10.30 - 11.00 Dr John Pickering (Department of Psychology, Warwick)

Meat Matters

11.00 – 11.30 Refreshments

Session 2:

11.30 – 1.00

Chair: Dr Claudia Stein (Department of History)

11.30 – 12.00

Luke Mason (Philter Phactory)

Infomorphs: A New Model of Compatibility between Human and Non-Human Agents

12.00 – 12.30

Professor Frances Griffith/Professor Alan Winfield (Warwick Medical School/University of the West of England, Bristol)

Dances with Robots

12.30 – 1.00

Professor Steve Fuller (Department of Sociology, Warwick)

Even Digital Humans Need a Metaphysics: Towards a Revival of Dualism

1.00 – 2.00

Lunch

Session 3:

2.00 – 3.30

Chairs: Luke Mason/Dr Claudia Stein

2.00 – 2.30

Dan Buzzo (University of the West of England)

On the Digital Afterlife

2.30 - 3.30

Roundtable Discussion

3.30

Closing Remarks and Farewell
