

Dear Alex,

Further to your query regarding permission for Dr Billie Oliver to use the report she compiled which we published, I am pleased to confirm that we are happy for Dr Oliver to use the pdf which is in downloadable format on our website here - http://www.cwdcouncil.org.uk/assets/0001/2106/Microsoft_Word_-_UWE_CWDC_project_final_report_March_2010.pdf.

If you have any further queries, do come back to us at info@cwdcouncil.org.uk

Kind regards

Children's Workforce Development Council

CWDC leads change so that the thousands of people and volunteers working with children and young people across England are able to do the best job they possibly can.

We want England's children and young people's workforce to be respected by peers and valued for the positive difference it makes to children, young people and their families.

We advise and work in partnership with lots of different organisations and people who all want the lives of all children and young people to be healthy, happy and fulfilling.

CWDC's vision is to create a world-class workforce for children, young people and families.

CWDC exists to improve the lives of children, young people, their families and carers by ensuring that all people working with them have the best possible training, qualifications, support and advice. It also helps children and young people's organisations and services to work together better so that the child is at the centre of all services.
